

INTIMATE MOMENT PRODUCTS

Information Guide

For employees and home party representatives

Our Story

It all began in Montréal, Canada, in 1988, when Sylvain Séguin, creator and designer, and partner Manon Vallée, idea manager and cosmetician, decided to start Eau Zone Oils & Fragrances, a high-end cosmetic company. Their very first collection was distributed and acclaimed in many countries and their business grew rapidly.

Twelve successful years later, in 2000, the couple decided to launch a new & innovative brand of intimate cosmetic products: SHUNGA Erotic Art. Created with the idea that making love is an art, SHUNGA Erotic Art products were, and still are today, designed for couples wishing to add variety and sensuality to their sexuality, heighten sensations and make every pleasuring act a seventh heaven.

Over the years, Eau Zone developed priceless know-how in the field of cosmetic products, controlling every step of the production process, from research and development to formulation, manufacturing, processing, quality control, design & packaging, and of course merchandising, marketing, sales, shipping and export.

Covered with shunga artwork and sleek lines reminiscent of Japanese design, our packaging is a treat for the eye that is sure to enhance all bedrooms. Their contents are treasures for arousal such as aphrodisiac oils and edible body powders, love-enticing balms, oils and creams for sensual massages, stimulants, lubricants, and much, much more.

Experience the divine fragrances, delicious aromas and tantalizing effects of SHUNGA Erotic Art!

In search of sexual excitement, eroticism is defined as two desires that are fulfilled without inhibition, leaving room for the pleasures, games and fantasies of physical love...

How to use the guide

In this information guide, you will learn about every product signed SHUNGA Erotic Art. A general presentation, main characteristics and features, along with directions for use and various sales tips are provided for each of our products.

More and more customers are sensitive to the ingredients that are being used in the formulation of the products they buy, this is why you will also find the list of ingredients for every product. SHUNGA products are high-quality products and are all natural, gluten-free, paraben-free, and latex-safe.

Following pages of the guide consist of a fast- reference chart that can come in handy when a customer is inquiring about a specific aspect regarding one of our products.

Keep in mind that we welcome your questions or comments at all times at info@shunga.com.

Inspired by Japanese erotic works of art from the 16th to the 18th century and designed for all the lovers of love-making, SHUNGA Erotic Art intimate products act as a medium between partners to increase sexual arousal during their most intimate union.
